

Commodore Report Bruce Carlisle

May is here. It May be warm; it May be cold - no May be about it – it’s boating time. The Columbia is flowing strong, and we are getting quite a bit of debris entering the basin. This will continue until the City of Richland completes their project on the basin inlet. So please be a good steward, check your slip regularly and clear out any accumulated debris. It will help to keep the spider population down.

Mother’s Day was a great success at the Club; kudos go out to Allie McGinnis and Sandy Sanders for organizing the event and the many members that volunteered. We are still looking for a member to serve as Rear Commodore. This is an event coordinator position to identify and help event hosts. It can be very rewarding and a great opportunity to meet members at the Club.

April moorage invoices were sent out and are due. If you have not received your invoice, be sure to get ahold of Kathy Higgins (kathyhiggins@frontier.com). There is quite a waiting list, you don’t want to lose your moorage.

Hello June – Lets get together at the Richland Yacht Club.

Vice Commodore Report Lee Celski

There was no membership activity at May’s general membership meeting. At the meeting in June I expect to have two resignations and at least 5 new memberships to vote on.

Treasurer Kathy Higgins

The moorage billing is now complete. Thank you all for submitting your payment. Efforts to contact the members who have not paid are underway. If you will not be renewing your membership or unable to pay for moorage, please let me know. If you are leaving the club, please submit a resignation letter as soon as possible. The next task is electrical readings, you should see this bill in June if your amount is above $50. The Kitchen remodel is delayed and will begin June 11 due to an emergency job the contractor received. Please contact me if you have any questions or billing issues or your address has changed at 509-308-5378 or email me at kathyhiggins@frontier.com. Happy Boating!

Rental Coordinator Allie McGinnis
